

Partner Code of Ethics of OTP Bank Plc. and the OTP Group

Transparency and ethical business conduct are of paramount importance to all members of OTP Bank Plc. and the OTP Group. A prerequisite for long-term success is to operate with integrity and to maintain a reputation based on trust, which helps to build stable partnerships and to achieve long-term business goals.

The purpose of the Partner Code of Ethics is to provide clear and unambiguous guidelines and expectations for those who have a relationship with the OTP Group on ethical business conduct in order to protect the values of the OTP Group.

The OTP Group endeavours to ensure that all its suppliers, business partners, agents and other contractual partners undertake to comply with the provisions of the Partner Code of Ethics (or equivalent own regulations) by accepting the General Terms and Conditions, which form an integral part of the contract with the OTP Group member.

If a manager or employee of a partner company knows or has reasonable grounds to suspect that the values set out in the Partner Code of Ethics have been violated in the partnership with the OTP Group, or if they have any questions about the Code, please indicate them to the Compliance Directorate of OTP Bank Plc.

I. Compliance with laws, regulations and official requirements

The partners of the OTP Group are obliged to comply with the applicable legal provisions, decisions and guidelines of the authorities, as well as with the industry and organisational standards and ethical requirements applicable to their business activities. They shall ensure, through appropriate regulation and training within their companies, that their employees and managers act in accordance with internal rules and applicable laws and regulations.

II. Transparency of accounts and reports

The OTP Group's partners are required to prepare and publish their accounts and financial reports in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and applicable laws.

III. Compliance with competition law and consumer protection rules

OTP Group partners are expected to adhere to the principle of fair competition and to comply with applicable competition laws. Partners act ethically and fairly in compliance with competition law, and refrain from any conduct that could result in an unfair restriction of competition or abuse of a dominant position. Unfair price-fixing, collusion in tendering, market-sharing agreements or abuse of dominant position are prohibited.

The OTP Group's partners are also expected to pay special attention to the protection of consumer interests and rights, and the quality of services provided to consumers.

IV. Conflict of interest

The OTP Group's partners must act transparently and honestly in relation to their business activities: they must disclose to the OTP Group any direct or indirect relationship between the partner and the employees of the OTP Group's members that affects business relations and report any such event to the OTP Group without delay.

V. Anti-corruption

The OTP Group is committed to combatting corruption, and declared zero tolerance towards all forms of bribery and the gaining of unfair advantages. The OTP Group ensures that national, European Union and international legislation on the prevention of corruption is fully enforced and expects its employees and contractual partners to comply with it.

The OTP Group expects its partners not to: promise or offer any benefits or advantages to employees of OTP Group member companies with the intention of obtaining business advantages; or demand or offer bribes, gifts or other benefits of value for the purpose of obtaining or realising business opportunities with a member of the OTP Group.

VI. Avoiding insider dealing

In the course of their daily work, certain employees of OTP Group partners may come into possession of inside information, which they may not use for financial gain or share with unauthorised persons. OTP Group partners are expected to take all necessary measures to avoid and prohibit insider trading.

VII. Confidentiality, protection of personal data

The OTP Group's partners are expected to protect and safeguard trade secrets, banking secrecy and securities secrecy in accordance with the applicable laws, to keep confidential business data relating to the OTP Group secure, without time limit and not to use or disclose them to third parties without prior consent.

The OTP Group's partners must ensure an adequate level of protection of personal data processed by them and must take appropriate security measures to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of the data to the authorised parties in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation and the applicable national legislation.

VIII. Activities against money laundering and terrorist financing, international sanctions and restrictive measures

The OTP Group expects its partners to act in the strongest possible way to prevent and deter money laundering and terrorist financing, to apply sanctioning rules and, by following the "Know Your Customer" principle, to obtain exhaustive customer information.

The OTP Group's partners are committed to complying with the economic, financial, trade sanctions and embargo laws and regulations adopted by the European Union and the United Nations and, to the extent as can be expected from them, the sanctions and laws of other applicable jurisdictions in particular those of the United States of America and the United Kingdom).

IX. Safe and healthy working environment

The OTP Group's partners ensure that their employees have a healthy and modern workplace that complies with labour regulations, that their health and safety are protected and that the necessary safety, occupational safety and fire protection training is provided.

X. Respecting human rights, ensuring workers' rights

The partners of the OTP Group are obliged to protect the universal human rights enshrined in international conventions and to firmly reject child labour, the employment of minors and forced labour. All employees must be treated fairly and with respect. The rights relating to personality, dignity and privacy of workers must also be respected.

In the exercise of workers' rights, it shall, to the extent that it is entitled to do so, ensure the following: the right to just and favourable conditions of work, fair wages and decent living conditions; the right to freedom of association and collective bargaining, the right to form and join trade unions, the right to be free from all forms of trafficking in persons, child labour and forced or compulsory labour; the right to non-discrimination, the principle of equal pay for equal work and the right to freedom of expression.

XI. Protection of the OTP Group's assets and interests

The OTP Group's partners must assume responsibility for the integrity, proper and economic use of the OTP Group's assets to which they have access or to which their activities have an impact.

The OTP Group's partners will also avoid any situation that could adversely affect the business interests or reputation of the OTP Group or any of its members.

XII. Sustainability

The OTP Group's partners assess and comply with sustainability (ESG) requirements to the extent that they can be expected to do so, and meet the E–Environmental, S–Social and G–Governance requirements applicable to them.

XIII. Ethical use of Artificial Intelligence (AI)

The OTP Group expects its partners subject to Regulation (EU) 2024/1689 laying down harmonised rules on artificial intelligence (the "AI Act") to apply the principles and expectations of the Partner Code of Ethics set out above during the development and use of AI systems, furthermore OTP Group's partners should strive to ensure that the principles of transparency, explainability, accountability, fairness, equity and non-discrimination are applied throughout the lifecycle of the AI systems it use.
